

In brief...In holding information on our database, such as a CV (and all the Personal Data you provide on it), the main objective is for Scope AT to provide you with suitable and appropriate job specifications from our clients, so that you can consider the available position, discuss further if needed, and if interested authorise us to proceed with an application (whether that be a Consultancy, Contract or Permanent position). We will only share the data that you have shared with us with a client with your express permission. Usually, unless we need to contractually or legally fulfil a duty, the only data that will be emailed externally is your name, and your CV (with skill profile), and a cover sheet or covering email with information that we will request from you at the time of forwarding your CV to the client. The key point is that we always seek your permission to share any data. We will only share personal data that we consider non-excessive in order to effectively fulfil our responsibility to both Candidate and Client.

Please find below our Privacy notice that explains, in detail, how and why we will process your data.

Scope AT is a recruitment business and IT solutions business which provides recruitment and IT solutions to clients, candidates and consultancies. We need to process personal data (including sensitive personal data) so that we can provide our services – in doing so, Scope AT acts as a data controller. You may have given your personal details to us directly, such as on an email application or registration form or via our website, or we may have collected the details from another source such as a CV Jobboard. Scope AT need to have a legal basis for processing your personal data, referred to below. We will only use your personal data in accordance with the terms of the following statement.

1. Collection and use of personal data

a. Purpose of processing and legal basis

Scope AT will collect your personal data (including sensitive personal data) and will process the data for the purposes of providing you with Recruitment and IT Solution Services. The legal bases we rely upon to offer these services to you is Legitimate Interest, Consent, Legal obligation or Contractual obligation (e.g. when we successfully find you a position). The legal basis may change at any time, for example, if we place you in a role, the legal basis for processing may change from Consent or Legitimate Interest to Contractual or Legal Obligation.

Our legitimate interests include providing a quality Service to Clients, Third Party companies that interface with our clients to enable the recruitment process and to Contractors; helping people find suitable Contract, Permanent and Consultancy work (with the candidates express permission); making an introduction to a client utilising relevant and recent job and skill information (with the candidates express permission); helping Clients fulfil Contract, Permanent and Consultancy headcount with suitable and interested Candidates; helping Consultancies deliver IT projects; ensuring the security of our services and in ensuring that our Website operates effectively; protecting Candidates, Clients, Employees and other individuals and maintaining their safety, health and welfare; promoting, marketing and advertising our services; understanding our candidates and clients preferences, and needs; improving services and developing new products and services; handling customer contacts, queries, complaints or disputes; fulfilling our duties to our candidates, clients, employees; creating local employment; and processing data that may be needed for Scope AT or Third Party companies (that interface with our clients to enable the recruitment process) to fulfil legal obligations, including legal regulatory reporting obligations.

a. Recipient/s of data

Scope AT will process your personal data and/or sensitive personal data (where required) with the following recipients:

Clients – with your express permission

Third party companies that interface with our clients to enable the recruitment process (for example where a client outsources their onsite Contract and Permanent recruitment process to a third party)

– with your express permission

Accounts Team / External Auditor / Relevant Government Bodies to fulfil legal obligations (in the case that we place you in a Contract, Permanent or Consultancy role) Daxtra – CV Parsing specialist (i.e used to populate our CRM with information).

c. Statutory/Contractual/Legal Regulatory Reporting requirement

Your personal data is required by a contractual requirement (e.g. our Client may require this personal data), and/or a requirement necessary to enter into a contract and, should you start in a contract role, our Client or Third Party company may require personal data in order to set you up on their internal system access prior to your start date. Should you start in a contract role your personal data may also be required in order for Scope AT, or our Client, or a Third Party company (that interface with our clients to enable the recruitment process) to fulfil legal obligations, including legal regulatory reporting obligations.

2. Data retention

Scope AT will retain your personal data only for as long as is necessary to comply with contractual and/or legal obligations. Different laws require us to keep different data for different periods of time. The Conduct of Employment Agencies and Employment Businesses Regulations 2003, require us to keep work-seeker records for at least one year from (a) the date of their creation or (b) after the date on which we last provide you with work-finding services. Scope AT keeps your Data for 2 years following each and every submission of a CV from you to us, at which point we will ask for consent to hold your data for a further 2 years if no CV update has been provided. Where Scope AT has obtained your consent to process your personal data, we will do so in line with the above. Where consent is not granted Scope AT will cease to process your personal data, in line with your rights stated below (3. Your rights). Should we have found you Contract or Consultancy work, we must also keep invoice / remittance records for a maximum of 6 years.

3. Your rights
